

2018 TRAIL MAINTENANCE SCHEDULE

Trail crew volunteers:

It is time to sign up for maintenance projects that Forty-Sixer crews will undertake in 2018. New this year, we offer an online sign-up form: <https://tinyurl.com/Trail-Crew-Signup-2018>. If you have problems using the online form, please reach out via e-mail: adk46ertrailwork@gmail.com (but please sign up on-line if at all possible). Come out and have fun as often as you can! -- Sam, Joe, Tom, Doug H, Doug V, and Brian, Trailmasters

May 4-11 (Or earlier. Weather is a factor here) Horse Trail Maintenance

We will be working from Duck Hole to Newcomb. Requirements: Crew size is limited. You must be in excellent physical condition and health. You may be required to carry up to 50 pounds of gear for up to 20 miles. We will be staying in the wilderness, and you must have proper equipment and food for the entire stay. We will work long hours and the work will be very hard. Still interested? More details to follow as the time gets closer.

May 12-13: Dix-Elk Lake Blow Down Sweep and Work at JBL with Katie.

The JBL crew is limited in size and the outing will be rigorous. Elk Lake crew will meet at Frontier Town at 7:15 a.m. Specific information about the JBL crew will follow as the time gets closer

May 26: Dix-Round Pond, Giant North and Whiteface Blowdown Sweeps

We will meet at various trailheads at 7:15 AM. The Whiteface blowdown sweep crew is limited in size. Camping available at Sharp Bridge State Campground; Friday and Saturday nights, sites 10 and 11.

May 27: The Mr. Van Lean-To Rebuild

We shall undo the damage mother nature did. We will meet at the South Meadow trailhead at 7:00 AM. Camping will be available at Sharp Bridge State Campground; Friday and Saturday nights, sites 10 and 11.

June 9-10: The Kagel Lean-To Relocation Project

We will meet at the Adirondack Loj at 7:15 AM both days. Participants will be e-mailed a parking pass.

June 23-24: Finish the Kagel Lean-to or another construction project.

We will meet at the Adirondack Loj at 7:15 AM both days. If lean-to project is complete, there is other work needed on the way in to Marcy Dam. Participants will be e-mailed a parking pass.

July 21-22: Women Only Weekend (WoW) 2018

Camping Friday and Saturday night at Paradox Lake State Campground, sites 53-56. Meet-up time is 7:30 AM each morning.

August 4-5: Trail work outside the High Peaks.
